YOUTH IN HARMONY FESTIVAL, DENVER, MONDAY SEPT 18

A combined effort (what a concept!) of the Denver MountainAires and Denver Mile High chapters in youth outreach offers a boys festival (called "DenverBarberFest") as well as High School quartet clinic and contest and Summer Harmony Camp.

DenverBarberFest (fifth annual) is Monday Sept 18 at Grandview High. Darin Drown is the clinician. The Festival workshop begins at 12:30 PM and the Festival concert is at 7:00 PM. 150-200 high school boys are expected to participate, and also on the evening show will be the Denver MountainAires and the Denver Mile High "Sound of the Rockies" and Storm Front quartet. Tickets for this OUTSTANDING show are only $5.00 (at the door). Music teachers and their guest may enter free.

How to start a Festival? Come and watch this one if you can. Contact YIH VP Phil Ricks at ricksco@ida.net or contact me, Tony Pranaitis, at TonyChiro@juno.com and either of us will be happy to help.

CHAPTER ELECTIONS ARE THIS MONTH (BY SEPT 30)

Please have your chapter officers elected by the end of this month so that they can make plans to attend COTS in Denver November 10-11. Remember that any chapter sending 4 men to COTS receives one free tuition to Rocky Mountain Harmony College.
